QC NOTES
Please provide details about any known QC issues.

By delivering this form, you verify that all information is complete and accurate and any missing assets (e.g. closed captioning, surround sound mix) have never been created for this, or any other version of the above mentioned film. If, at any point, these missing assets are created, you also agree to deliver them to The Orchard immediately after creation. Failure to do so could result in the title being removed from stores without notice.
